when you have financial difficulties

a Centrecare service for people wanting to better manage their finances

CENTRECARE

From time to time most people experience financial worries and difficulties of some sort. What we do about it and how it affects those close to us can be different for each person. This service can provide you with the practical assistance and support you may need.

Do you:

- have trouble managing your finances;
- owe money;
- have outstanding bills; and/or
- have no regular income?

Would you like to:

- get on top of your finances;
- sort through your bills;
- better manage your income;
- reduce your spending;
- pay your bills on time;
- maintain your tenancy;
- have an advocate talk to debtors - organisations to which you owe money (e.g. Bank, Synergy, Water Corp, Alinta Gas);
- find out more about bankruptcy;
- access payment schemes and entitlements; and/or
- apply for a No Interest Loan Scheme (NILS)?

If you answer “yes” to any of the above questions, then this service may be of help to you.

when...

... you want to manage your money better

Centrecare's Goldfields Financial Counselling

Service provides confidential counselling support and educational programs for people experiencing financial difficulties. Services are available in Kalgoorlie, Coolgardie, Kambalda, Menzies, Leonora, Laverton and Norseman.

Individual, couple or family counselling

Counselling is a confidential way for you to discuss your issues and concerns. The counsellor can help you to identify specific goals and strategies for effectively dealing with your financial situation. Together, you will discuss your options and determine whether your counsellor may need to talk to another person on your behalf.

Groups and workshops

Centrecare also provides financial management workshops for community groups and schools.

How long is a counselling session?

Generally, counselling sessions last between 45 - 75 minutes.

This service is provided by Centrecare and funded by the State Government through the Department of Local Government and Communities'.

Culturally Appropriate Service

Centrecare aims to provide a respectful and culturally sensitive service and interpreters are available on request.

Crèche Facilities

Only available at the Perth and Midland offices and bookings are essential.

Is this service private and confidential?

Our services are confidential and all our staff are bound by our Commitment to Confidentiality and Oath or Affirmation of Secrecy, for Family and Child Counsellors. However, confidentiality will be waived where there may be a threat to an individual's safety or if a serious crime or threat against another person is disclosed.

Centrecare is committed to ensuring that your information is protected and managed in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 which sets out the standards for the way in which personal information must be handled. If you wish to access the information on your file, please ask the receptionist for the necessary form.

Are the staff qualified?

All our staff interacting with clients are qualified for their job role. They receive ongoing professional development and supervision.

How do I provide feedback?

Centrecare prides itself on providing high quality services. Your comments assist us in maintaining or improving that level of quality and fully meeting the needs of our clients. Recording your feedback is one of the best ways to help us understand what we do well and where we can improve.

If you have a suggestion, compliment or complaint, please complete the Client Feedback form which is available at reception and place it in the Suggestions Box.

Alternatively, you may also wish to write or speak to the Manager at your branch.

Centrecare is an organisation that values children.
