CENTRECARE

"People Making Time for People"

when family and domestic violence affects your family

a Centrecare service for individuals, families and children affected by domestic and family violence

Is your family affected by violence and seeking help to break the cycle? If you are either experiencing the effects of domestic violence from a family member or would like support to address your abusive behavior the Specialist Family Violence Service is well placed to support you.

If you or your child would like to talk to a qualified counsellor about your domestic violence experience in a safe, nonjudgemental space, Centrecare can provide this.

Our services will help you and your family work to ensure the safety of all individuals effected by family violence.

Are you having problems with:

- suffering from a pattern of coercive control;
- abuse or violence in the family;
- children exposed to family violence;
- adolescent violence in the home;
- being physically or emotionally abused;
- experiencing put downs or verbal abuse;
- being socially isolated from family and friends;
- being forced or coerced into unwanted sexual contact/activity; and/or
- being controlled financially by limiting or removing your access to money?

If you are experiencing any of the above, then this service may be of help to you.

when...

...family and domestic violence affects you and your family

Centrecare's Specialised Family Violence Service

provides intensive individual and family support including counselling and group programs to those effected by domestic and family violence, including young people and children who experience and witness family violence.

Individual, couple or family counselling

Counselling is a confidential way that individuals, couples and families can discuss any issues and concerns. Counsellors are trained to assist you with identifying options and making choices that are right for you.

Child counselling and therapy groups

Individual counselling and group therapy sessions for children who have witnessed or have been exposed to violence have proven beneficial in increasing children's resilience and reducing the risk of long term emotional, psychological and behavioral impacts associated with this trauma.

Adolescent counseling and therapy groups

Individual counselling and group sessions for young people who wish to stop acting violently toward their parents/caregivers.

How long is a counselling session?

Counselling sessions run for approximately 50 minutes.

This service is funded by the Department of Social Services.

Culturally Appropriate Service

Centrecare aims to provide a respectful and culturally sensitive service and interpreters are available on request.

Crèche Facilities

Only available at the Perth and Midland offices, bookings are essential.

Is this service private and confidential?

Our services are confidential and all our staff are bound by our Commitment to Confidentiality and Oath or Affirmation of Secrecy, for Family and Child Counsellors. However, confidentiality will be waived where there may be a threat to an individual's safety or if a serious crime or threat against another person is disclosed.

Centrecare is committed to ensuring that your information is protected and managed in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 which sets out the standards for the way in which personal information must be handled. If you wish to access the information on your file, please ask the receptionist for the necessary form.

Are the staff qualified?

All our staff interacting with clients are qualified for their job role. They receive ongoing professional development, supervision and meet the requirements of the Family Law Act.

How do I provide feedback?

Centrecare prides itself on providing high quality services. Your comments assist us in maintaining or improving that level of quality and fully meeting the needs of our clients. Recording your feedback is one of the best ways to help us understand what we do well and where we can improve.

If you have a suggestion, compliment or complaint, please complete the Client Feedback form which is available at reception and place it in the Suggestions Box.

Alternatively, you may also wish to write or speak to the Manager at your branch.
