

When you are the parent or caregiver of a teenager

A three hour seminar for parents and caregivers who want to improve their relationship with their teenagers

Adolescence is a time of transition and has its challenges for young people and their families alike.

Conflict, communication difficulties and a lack of understanding may often occur. At such an important time it can be easy to lose confidence in the ability to parent successfully.

These seminars are designed to assist you:

- Increase your understanding of adolescence
- Improve your relationship with your teenager
- Learn new ways of communicating
